The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 7, to Saturday June 11, 1763.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st Day of June, 1763,

PRESENT,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An "Act for the further Improvement of "His Majesty's Revenue of Customs; "and for the Encouragement of Officers making "Seizures; and for the Prevention of the clan-"destine Running of Goods into any Part of His "Majesty's Dominions, it is, amongst other Things, Enacted, That for the more effectual Prevention of the infamous Practice of Smuggling, and for the better Encouragement of the Officers and Seamen of all such Ships and Vessels of War belonging to His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, who may be employed in preventing the clandestine Running of Goods on the Coasts of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the other Dominions and Colonies belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, One Moiety of the Nett Produce arising by the Sale of Smuggling Vessels and prohibited Goods, which shall be so seized after the First Day of May, 1763, and condemned and sold according to Law, (the Charges whereof being first deducted) shall be vested in the said Officers and Seamen; and His Majesty is thereby empowered to cause the same to be divided amongst the said Officers and Seamen, in such Proportions, and in such Manner, as His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, shall think fit to order and direct, by any Order or Orders of Council, or by any Proclamation or Proclamations, to be made or issued, from Time to Time, for that Purpose; and His Majesty is likewise empowered by the said Act, to make a Distribution of any other Part of all and every the Seizure and Seizures that shall be made by such Officers and Seamen respectively; the Money arising by the Sale of which other Part is directed by the said Act to be paid into the Exchequer. His Majesty, taking the same into His Royal Consideration, is hereby pleased, pursuant to the Powers vested in Him by the said Act, and by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, direct, and appoint, That the Moiety of Seizures, granted by the said Act to the Officers and Seamen as aforesaid, be divided in the following Proportions; videlicet, 1st, With Regard to Seizures made by the Officers and Men of Ships and Sloops of War.

To the Captain or Captains of any such Ships or Sloops, who shall be actually on Board at the Seizure of any Smuggling Vessel, or prohibited Goods, Three Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them; To the Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants and Masters, on Board any such Ships or Sloops, One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; To the Lieutenants and Quarter Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns, and Quarter Masters of Land Forces, Boatswain, Gunner, Purser, Carpenter, Master's Mate, Surgeon, Pilot, and Chaplain, on Board any such Ships or Sloops, One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; To the Midshipmen, Secretary to Flag Officers, Captain's Clerk, Master Sailmaker, Carpenter's Mates, Boatswain's Mates, Gunner's Mates, Master at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Coxswain, Quarter Masters, Quarter Masters Mates, Surgeons Mates, Yeomen of the Powder Room, and Serjeants of Marines or Land Forces, on Board any such Ships or Sloops, One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them; To the Trumpeters, Quarter Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Steward, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumperer, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marine or other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty or assisting on Board any such Ships or Sloops, Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them.

2d, With Regard to Seizures made by the Officers and Men of Cutters, commanded by Lieutenants.

To the Lieutenant commanding such Cutter, who shall be actually on Board at the Seizure of any Smuggling Vessel, or prohibited Goods, One Half Part: To the Second Master and Pilot, or Master's Mate and the Midshipmen, on Board any such Cutter, One Eighth Part; the Second Master and Pilot, or Master's Mate, to have Two Third Parts thereof, and the Midshipman to have the Remainder: But if there should happen to be a Pilot Extraordinary on Board at the making of any such Seizure, the Second Master and Pilot, or Master's Mate, is, in that Case, to have One Moiety of the said Eighth Part, and the other Moiety is to be equally divided between the Pilot extraordinary and Midshipman. To the Clerk and Steward, Boatswain's Mate, Gunner's Mate, Carpenter's Mate, and Surgeon's Mate, on Board any such Cutter, One Eighth Part; To the Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and all other Persons, doing Duty and assisting on Board any such Cutter, Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them.

3d, With Regard to Seizures made by Ships or Sloops of War in Conjunction with Cutters.

That in all such Cases, the Moiety which is given to the Officers and Men who shall make such Seizure, be divided into so many equal Parts, or Shares, as there may be Ships or Sloops, and Cutters concerned therein, and that those Shares be distributed to the Officers and Men of the Ships or Sloops, and Cutters, according to the aforegoing Proportions.

And His Majesty doth hereby further order, direct, and appoint, That in Case any Seizures shall be made in any of the Colonies Abroad, belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, by His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, being Part of the Squadron, or acting under the Orders of a Flag Officer, or a Commodore, with a Captain under him, such Flag Officer or or Commodore, ſhall have One Fourth Part of the other Moiety of the ſaid Seizure, which is directed by Act of Parliament to be paid into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer: And in Caſe any Sea Captain, Inferior Commiſſion or Warrant Sea Officers, belonging to any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, for whom any Shares of Seizures are hereby allowed, be abſent at the Time of making ſuch Seizure, the Share of ſuch Sea Captain, Inferior Commiſſion or Warrant Sea Officer, ſhall be caſt into the Shares hereby allowed to the Trumpeters, Quarter Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Steward, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunſmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marine or other Soldiers, and all other Perſons doing Duty or aſſiſting on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, to be equally divided amongſt them. Provided, That if any Officer or Officers, on Board of any ſuch Ship or Sloops, at the Time of making ſuch Seizures, ſhall have more Commiſſions or Offices than One, he or they ſhall be entitled only to the Share, which, according to the abovementioned Diſtribution, ſhall belong to his or their reſpective ſuperior Commiſſions or Offices. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, are to cauſe His Majeſty's Pleaſure, hereby ſignified, to be duly complied with.

Phil. Sharpe.

St. James's, June 11.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Freemen and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Albans, having been delivered by Robert Baſkerfeild, Eſq; Mayor of the ſaid Borough, to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's ever faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Freemen and Principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of St. Albans, beg Leave to pay our moſt humble Duty to your Majeſty, and teſtify our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's gracious and conſtant Care and Attention to the Welfare of your People, which we chuſe to do at this Time, that we may have an Opportunity of declaring our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the Behaviour of thoſe who endeavour to ſtir up a Spirit of Diſreſpect, Animoſity, and Faction, when your Majeſty's great Regard to the Religious and Civil Liberties of your Subjects, and your utmoſt Endeavours to promote their Happineſs, demands the beſt, moſt grateful, and affectionate Returns of Reſpect and dutiful Obedience.

Your Majeſty having concluded a Peace, after a long, expenſive, and bloody War, not only to your own Satisfaction, but approved of by the Great Council of the Nation, permit us, Sir, to return our ſincere Thanks for your Attention therein to the Advantage of your Kingdoms; and to aſſure your Majeſty, it ſhall always be our Endeavour to manifeſt, that to the beſt of Kings, we are moſt grateful, dutiful, obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Southampton, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Southampton.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of your Majeſty's County of Southampton, beg Leave to offer our Congratulations on the happy Succeſs with which Providence has been pleaſed to bleſs your Majeſty's Endeavours, in procuring to your People an honourable and advantageous Peace, which, amongſt its many other Benefits, opens to your Subjects the pleaſing Proſpect of cultivating and improving thoſe moſt extenſive Countries, which by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, the Activity and Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, have been acquired during the Courſe of a juſt and neceſſary War.

Permit us, Royal Sir, at the ſame Time, to give your Majeſty the moſt ſincere Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government; and of our Deteſtation of the remoteſt Attempt to diſturb the domeſtic Tranquility, by reviving thoſe invidious Diſtinctions, which had happily ſubſided by your Majeſty's Attention to the Welfare and Proſperity of all your Subjects.

May Providence, which hath hitherto ſo ſignally diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's Reign, and enabled you to put an End to the Calamities and Uncertainties of War, ſtill continue its Bleſſings to this Country, by prolonging your Majeſty's Life, ſo dear and valuable to this Nation.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, and Commonalty of the City of Canterbury, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Beſt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City Canterbury, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, on the putting an End to the Calamities of a juſt and neceſſary War, and reſtoring to your People the Bleſſings of Peace. An Event which brings with it the faireſt Proſpect of adding to the Felicity of your Kingdoms; all the Riches that Trade can furniſh, and all the Honours that Power can beſtow.

The judicious Meaſures, which your Majeſty has ſo vigorouſly purſued ever ſince your Acceſſion to the Throne, are certain Proofs of your being the Friend and Father of your People; and the ſheathing of the deſtructive Sword of War, amidſt a Succeſſion of glorious Conqueſts, diſplays thoſe true Characteriſticks of the Hero, Bravery and Humanity.

Whilſt thus ſtudious for the Welfare of your Subjects, and diffuſing Happineſs with a liberal Hand, the Spirit of Faction and Diſcontent ſeems unhappily ariſing; but Shame be to thoſe, who invidiouſly attempt to ſully your Renown, and interrupt the Publick Tranquility.

Permit us, Great Sir, to aſſure you, that no Endeavours ſhall be ſpared, by this Corporation, to promote a perfect Harmony and Unanimity amongſt its Inhabitants, and to inſtil into their Minds a true Senſe of their Duty and Obedience to their native Sovereign.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous. May your Subjects practiſe every ſocial Virtue after your

your illuſtrious Example; and make thoſe Returns of filial Gratitude to your Majeſty's parental Goodneſs, which the Voice of Inclination, not of Cuſtom, dictates.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Soame Jenyns, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge.

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept the Congratulations of your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge, upon the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Endeavours ro reſtore the Publick Tranquillity of a great Part of Europe.

The Advantages of the Peace which your Majeſty has made, will we hope be fully manifeſted by its long Continuance. Your faithful Subjects may then indulge the Expectation of being relieved from many of thoſe heavy Burthens, which they chearfully ſubmitted to for the Support of a War, entered into by your Royal Grandfather, whoſe Memory will be ever dear to us, upon Principles of true Policy, and attended with the moſt glorious and unexampled Succeſſes in every Quarter of the World.

May your Majeſty's Reign be greatly prolonged for the Good and Happineſs of your People; and may our lateſt Poſterity look up to your Royal Deſcendants, with the Confidence that we do to your Majeſty, for the full Enjoyment of thoſe invaluable Civil and Religious Liberties, the beſt Birthrights of Engliſhmen, which have always derived Protection and Support from the Kings of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Powis, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of your County of Montgomery, humbly intreat your Majeſty to accept of our ſincere Congratulations on the Eſtabliſhment of a General Peace, not only to theſe your Kingdoms, but throughout all Europe.

The great and extenſive Acquiſitions now ſecured to your Subjects by this Peace, exceed every Thing that has been done by your Predeceſſors; and we now enjoy the Happineſs of ſeeing your Majeſty the Reſtorer of Tranquility to your own People, to your Allies, and to Mankind.

May you be long preſerved by Providence to reign over a grateful and happy People; and may the Bleſſings we enjoy be (through your Majeſty's Iſſue) tranſmitted to our lateſt Poſterity.

Dated the 2d of May, in the Third Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant Governor and the States of the Iſland of Guernſey, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Earl of Delawarr, Governor of the ſaid Iſland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ever loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lieutenant Governor, and the States of your Iſland of Guernſey, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude, to congratulate your Majeſty upon the honourable and advantageous Peace lately procured by your Majeſty to your Subjects, after a bloody and expenſive War, in which Divine Providence has ſo crowned the Juſtice of your Cauſe (by many Victories and Conqueſts gained by your Majeſty's Arms over your Enemies) as will render the Annals of theſe Times the Admiration, not only of the preſent, but alſo of future Ages. And we have Reaſon to believe, that amongſt the many other Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, this Peace (by the Favour of God) will procure us a firm and laſting Tranquility, by which Means, Arts and Sciences, Trade and Agriculture, the Offſprings of Peace, will flouriſh and increaſe.

May the ſame Divine Providence, who has ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty by ſo many excellent Virtues, and his Protection, continue his Care over your Majeſty, and grant you a long Space of Time to reign over your People, to compleat their Happineſs, as much as it can be here below.

Theſe are the ſincere and hearty Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects.

Vienna, May 14. Her Imperial Majeſty's Birth-day was celebrated Yeſterday with great Pomp, and the Court, on that Occaſion, was very ſplendid.

To-day the Court goes to Luxenbourg to ſpend ſeveral Weeks. Count Finkenſtein is ſaid to be deſigned for his Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſter to this Court; and Baron Rud de Collenberg will go as Imperial Miniſter to that of Berlin.

M. Holzen, Vice-Governor of this City, is preparing to reſign his Poſt, and to retire into the Country for the Remainder of his Life.

Munich, May 17. Next Thurſday the Electreſs ſets out for the Baths of Embs: Her Serene Highneſs will be accompanied by 140 Perſons. It is believed the Elector will meet that Princeſs on her Return from the Baths, and that they will ſpend ſome Time at the Court of Manheim.

Pay Office in Broad-ſtreet, June 1, 1763.

Whereas it frequently happens, that the Widows and Repreſentatives of Sailors belonging to His Majeſty's Service who die at Sea or in Foreign Parts, ignorantly apply to the Eccleſiaſtical Court of the Juriſdiction neareſt to the Place where ſuch Widows and Repreſentatives happen to live, in order to obtain Adminiſtration or Probats of the Wills of ſuch Seamen.

And whereas no Wages, due to Seamen as aforeſaid, can legally or ſafely be paid, as the Law now ſtands, on producing any Adminiſtrations not granted by, or Wills which have not been proved in, the Prerogative Court of the See of Canterbury, held at Doctors Commons, London: In order therefore to ſave unneceſſary Trouble and Expence to ſuch Widows or Repreſentatives, Notice is hereby given, that they ſhould not apply for any Wages due to the Deceaſed, until they have taken out Letters of Adminiſtration in the ſaid Prerogative Court, and in no other whatever.

And whereas the Widows and next of Kin of Seamen are ſometimes deterred from proving their Wills and Adminiſtring, by a Notion, that the Fees and Expences attending the ſame are ſo large, that it is not worth their While to entitle themſelves to receive Wages which amount only to ſmall Sums.

Notice is hereby given, that the Charge at Doctors Commons of taking Adminiſtrations or proving the Wills, in common Form, of Seamen dying in the Pay of His Majeſty's Navy, by the Widows, Children, Fathers, Mothers, Brothers or Siſters of ſuch Seamen where the Effects of the Deceaſed are under the ſeveral Rates of Five Pounds, Twenty Pounds, Forty Pounds, and Sixty Pounds, by Commiſſions or otherwiſe, amount to no more than the reſpective Sums particularly ſpecified in the Table or Schedule hereunder mentioned, Stamps Office and Proctors Fees all included.

A Schedule or Table of the Charges at Doctors Commons, of taking Adminiſtrations, or proving Wills, in common Form, of Seamen dying in the Pay of His Majeſty's Navy, by the Widows, Children, Fathers, Mothers, Brothers or Siſters of ſuch Seamen, diſtinguiſhed according to the Amount of the Deceaſed's Effects, and as taken without or by Commiſſion, and wherein Stamps, and all Office and Proctors Fees are included.

Admiralty Office, May 16, 1763.

His late Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to eſtabliſh certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commiſſion and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: Theſe are to give Notice, that Copies of the ſaid Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy at Chatham, Portſmouth, and Plymouth; as alſo with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerneſs; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinſale; where all ſuch Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the ſaid Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpoſe. But ſuch Widows as live at too great a Diſtance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Belſon, at the Admiralty Office, who will ſend them all neceſſary Information. And the Governors of the ſaid Charity intending to diſtribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of Auguſt 1732, as well as to the Widows of thoſe who died ſince that Time, whoſe Circumſtances come within the Rules of the Eſtabliſhment, ſuch Monies as may be due to them on the 31ſt of May inſtant; This is to give Notice thereof, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do ſo as ſoon as poſſible; and that all ſuch Widows whoſe Claims have been already allowed, may ſend or bring to this Office, by the 31ſt of this Inſtant, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Penſion or Bounty.

Navy Office, June 3, 1763.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that on Tueſday the 21ſt Inſtant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, Commiſſioner Hughes will expoſe to Sale, at the Pay-Office in His Majeſty's Yard at Portſmouth, ſeveral Lots of old Stores lying in the ſaid Yard. Printed Inventories whereof will be delivered at the Clerk of the Acts Office in this Office, and at the ſaid Yard.

And as a Depoſit, at the Rate of 25 per Cent. is to be made by the Purchaſers, all Perſons that attend the Sale, are to take Notice thereof; and unleſs the Stores are fully paid for, and taken away at the Time appointed, the Depoſit will be forfeited, and become the Property of the Crown.

Victualling Office, June 6, 1763.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 27th Inſtant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as may be inclinable to undertake to ſupply Proviſions to ſuch of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels as may touch at Nova Scotia, and be in want thereof; and alſo Freſh Beef, upon a ſeparate Contract.

The Conditions of the Contracts may be ſeen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London.

Navy Office, June 9, 1763.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that on Thurſday next the 16th inſtant, at Eleven of the Clock in the Morning, they will expoſe to Sale at this Office, the Hulls of His Majeſty's Ship Portmahon, Roman Emperor Fireſhip, and Otter Sloop, at Deptford, with ſundry Stores on board them: Alſo ſeveral Lots of Old Stores, lying at the ſaid Yard. Printed Inventories whereof will be delivered at the Clerk of the Acts Office in this Office, and at the Clerk of the Checque's Office at Deptford where ſuch Perſons as are willing to be Purchaſers, may have the Liberty of Viewing them at any Time in the common working Hours of the Yard, till the Day of Sale.

As a Depoſit, at the Rate of 25 per Cent. is to be made by the Purchaſers, all Perſons that attend the Sale are to take Notice thereof, and come prepared for that Purpoſe; and unleſs the ſaid Ships and Stores are fully paid for, and taken away at the Time appointed, the Depoſit will be forfeited, and the Ships and Stores put up to Sale again.

Victualling Office, June 6, 1763.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 22d inſtant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as may be inclinable to undertake to ſupply ſuch of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels with Wine, as may touch at Madeira, and be in Want thereof.

And on the ſame Day they will alſo be ready to treat with ſuch Perſons as may be inclinable to ſupply His Majeſty's Ships that touch at the ſaid Place with other Proviſions, upon a ſeparate Contract from the Wine.

The Conditions of the Contract may be ſeen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London.

Cuſtom Houſe, London, June 10, 1763.

The Receiver-General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms gives Notice, That he ſhall be ready, on the 20th of June inſtant, and the four following uſual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn-Debentures that became due between the 2d of May 1763, excluſive, and the 31ſt of the ſame Month incluſive, without Intereſt.

Eaſt India Houſe, June 8, 1763.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies do hereby give Notice, that at the General Quarterly Court of the ſaid Company, appointed to be held on Wedneſday the 22d of this inſtant June, it is propoſed to conſider of Reducing the Intereſt on the ſaid Company's Bonds.

Royal Exchange Aſſurance Office, London, June 1, 1763.

The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Aſſurance Company do hereby give Notice, That their Transfer Books will be ſhut from Tueſday the 14th Inſtant, to Thurſday the 14th of July next: And that a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at their Office on the Royal Exchange, on Wedneſday the 22d Inſtant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, to conſider of a Dividend.

Merchant Seamens Office Royal Exchange, June 11, 1763.

A General Court of the Preſident and Governors for the Relief and Support of ſick, maimed, and diſabled Seamen, &c. in the Merchants Service, will be held at this Office, on Wedneſday the 29th of June inſtant, for the Election of a Preſident and Committee for the Year enſuing; and for other Affairs.

By Order of the Preſident and Committee,

The THIRD Edition of the FIRST Volume of
MEDICAL OBSERVATIONS and INQUIRIES.
By a Society of PHYSICIANS in London.
Printed for W. Johnſton, in Ludgate-Street.
Where may be had the SECOND Volume, Price 6 s. bound.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, the Small Pox, Meaſles, Pleuriſies, Quinſies, acute Rheumatiſms, Colds, and all inflammatory Diſorders, as well as for thoſe which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hyſteric, Price 2 s. 6 d. the Paper; with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.

 Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a ſafe and certain Cure for the above Diſorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as uſual in Marble Paper, the Commiſſioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be ſo preſerved for the Uſe of all His Majeſty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is alſo made up in the ſame Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for thoſe who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is ſold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by thoſe who are empowered by him to ſell it in the ſeveral Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had,

Dr. James's Mild Powder for the Diſorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the ſame Materials as the other Powder, but ſo contrived as to have little or no ſenſible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumſtances, Infants, and thoſe whoſe Conſtitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Pitting in the Small Pox, Price 2 s. 6 d.

BY THE KING's PATENT, bearing Date the Firſt of September, 1761.

THE IMPERIAL LOTION, being a Chymical Preparation, the wonderful Qualities of which, by an outward Application, are to extract and expel any Injury or Infection received upon Coition with Perſons having the Venereal Diſeaſe. Price 10 s. 6 d. the Bottle. One Bottle will preſerve a Perſon for many Months, and although he has carnal Knowledge of many unclean Perſons, he cannot poſſibly receive any Injury. There is no Occaſion to expatiate upon the Uſe and Happineſs of ſuch a Diſcovery, as all the attendant dreadful Conſequences of this Diſorder, ſo fatal to many, by proper Application hereof, may now be prevented, and the Lives and Health of many Thouſands preſerved by it.

Alſo, The Admirable ESSENCE OF LIFE, being Chymical Drops, which are an abſolute and infallible Cure for Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes of all Kinds, and all Manner of Inward Decays; the Like of which for Certainty in thoſe difficult Caſes has never been equalled. To all Traders, Artificers, Mariners, and Ship Carpenters, whether Natives of Great Britain and Ireland, or Foreigners.

WHereas the Port of Stornoway, in the Iſland of Lewes, on the North Weſt Coaſt of Scotland, is moſt commodiouſly ſituated for Trade to all Parts of America, as well as to all the Ports in Europe, particularly to the Northern and Eaſtern Countries.

This Port and Harbour is well known to be one of the beſt in Europe, where Ships, of any Burden, may anchor with the greateſt Safety, at all Seaſons.

There is a Fiſhery of all Kinds round the Iſland; particularly Cod, Ling, Herring, and Turbot; ſo that the Fiſhery, in its different Branches, may be carried on there at all Seaſons in the Year.

The Iſland abounds with great Plenty of Proviſions, Beef, Mutton, Poultry, and Garden Stuff, beſides Veniſon and Wild Fowl in the Seaſon; and Ships may be ſupplied at very moderate Rates.

There is a Poſt Office, and a regular Packet weekly to and from the main Land; Diſtance fifteen Leagues.

There is a Cuſtom Houſe eſtabliſhed for the Convenience of Trade and the Fiſhery, ſo that Ships may clear out and proceed directly upon their Voyages, according as their Cargoes are compleated, and may there depoſit their ſurplus Bond Salt, according to Act of Parliament.

There is an annual Allowance from the Publick for the Encouragement and Introduction of Manufacturers of Flax and Hemp into the Iſland; which is forthwith to be carried into Execution.

There is alſo an eſtabliſhed School for teaching the Languages, Writing, Book-keeping, and Mathematicks.

Theſe are therefore to give Notice,

That for the Encouragement of induſtrious and good People to ſettle there, the Proprietor of the ſaid Iſland is to grant, in Feu, a large Piece of Ground in the Town of Stornoway in the ſaid Iſland, in different Lots, by Charters and Conveyances, required by the Law of Scotland, for the Security of Builders and Adventurers; each Lot to conſiſt of 60 Yards by 15, ſufficient for a Dwelling-houſe, Garden, and Ware-houſes, to ſuch Perſons as are inclinable to ſettle and build there, for Payment of a ſmall yearly Acknowledgment, by way of Ground Rent or Feu Duty.

N. B. All Sailors and diſbanded Marines, who chooſe to ſettle in this Place, will be intitled to the ſame Bounty Money and Encouragement as is already advertiſed to be given to ſuch Sailors and others as ſhall ſettle upon the annexed Eſtates: And for their further Encouragement, the Proprietor will give them a Portion of Land, not exceeding three Acres, Rent free for ſeven Years, and afterwards at a Rent not exceeding five Shillings per Acre.
